Nobody hurt The man who shot was arrested An accomplice who attempted to arrest the would-be assassin was also arrested

The city is greatly excited in consequence of the attempt on the emperor's life Great crowds assembled in front of the palace, to whom the emperor has several times shown himself in acknowledgment of their expressions of sympathy Members of the ministry foreign ambassadors and officers of the army hastened to the palace to tender their congratulations on his escape The would be assassin is in the hands of the police, who decline information as to the character of the perpetrator, and the motive of the crime is therefore unknown

Further of the Attempted Assassination

Berlin, May 12—Two shots were fired into the emperor's carriage from the sidewalk without effect The assassin ran into the middle of the avenue followed by the crowd On an attempt being made to capture him he fired three more shots and threw his revolver away He was then secured The emperor's carriage was stopped and the footman sprang from the box and assisted at the capture Another man, who it is alleged attempted to rescue the one that fired the shots, was arrested a few minutes afterwards in the middle of the avenue The man who attempted to assassinate the emperor is a tinsmith named Emil Heinrich Max Hoedel It is said he is from Leipsic He was taken to the nearest police station where a preliminary investigation was instituted. The accomplice arrested is named Kruger, a laborer, belonging to Berlin There were unceasing demonstrations before the palace throughout the evening Dense masses were streaming in from the remote suburbs to manifest their loyalty and sympathy singing the national anthem The emperor went to the opera at the Royal theater to night and received great ovations

At the official examination of Hoedel the prisoner stated that he was a native of Leipsig He denied that he fired at the emperor He affirmed that he was without work and intended to shoot himself publicly to show the rich the present condition of the people He stated that he shot at himself and could not account for the other three shots which were wanting in the chamber of his revolver He thought he might have discharged them in absence of mind The prisoner was in possession of several socialistic and democratic writings tickets of membership of several Berlin socialistic unions and likenesses of two socialistic leaders He declared he belonged to no party but was an anarchist the enemy of all political parties, the present condition of society and public institutions It further resulted from the investigation that Hoedel formerly held socialistic meetings near Leipsig The other prisoner, Kruger appears innocent and is reported to have been liberated He was arrested because he endeavored to protect Hoedel against assaults of the excited crowd

Telegrams congratulating the emperor on his escape have arrived from all the German princes and European sovereigns To day the emperor received the royal family, ministry and field marshals, who came to congratulate him

THE UNITED STATES NAVY.

Abstracts from the Majority and Minority Reports of the Committee on Expenditures in the Naval Department.

Washington May 10—The committee on expenditures in the navy department made a report to day They say extravagance and disregard of legal restraints previous to the present administration have been recognized at almost every step of their inquiry At the outset they were staggered by the immense sums apparently owing by the several bureaus, reaching the sum of more than $7 000 000 and this too notwithstanding the enormous appropriations made annually from 1869 to 1876 both inclusive aggregating in amount $14 000 000 with nothing to compensate this vast outlay save a navy contemptible in comparison with those of third and fourth rate powers Notwithstanding the terms of the law, open purchases had been the chief mode by which the navy department has been supplied with materials not in obedience to expediency, but vastly in excess of its means This violation of the law without warrant in precedent or authority has robbed the treasury to the extent of millions of dollars, and has been the food on which pampered favorites have fattened while it has prevented the payment of moneys due a meritorious class of creditors to such an extent that many have been involved in bankruptcy and all of them subjected to irreparable loss The amount of open purchases and bureau orders within the last five years aggregate more than $70 000 000 All the advantages of the open market have been ignored, fair competition avoided and both the letter and spirit of the law disregarded A large share of the indebtedness of the department is due on account of contracts for repair—more properly for rebuilding—the Indian Amphitrite, Terror, Monadnock and Miantonomah intended to be double turreted monitors These contracts contain clauses providing for the exchange of new for old material This involves a violation of law on the part of the secretary of the navy The sum which has been paid or remains due on contracts for the construction of said vessels alone is $1 416 570 One of the largest contingent liabilities of the government grows out of orders for timber and iron clads and boilers suspended by the present secretary of the navy A majority of the committee report that the indebtedness which they have mentioned is owing to certain parties in amounts set opposite their respective names In the bureau of engineering aggregating $1[illegible] 8[illegible] in the bureau of construction and repair $[illegible] 31 amounts due for timber in the bureau of equipment and repair $[illegible] 32 bureau of provisions and clothing $44 [illegible] making a total of $[illegible] 17 78 From this the majority recommend the adoption of the following resolution

That the committee on appropriations [illegible] report an appropriation [illegible] the [illegible] necessary [illegible] secretary to pay the claims [illegible] respective [illegible]

That the secretary of the navy be and he is hereby instructed to cancel the contracts dated March 1877 with Phil. as [illegible] for the completion of the Monadnock [illegible] with Wm Cramp [illegible] for the completion of the [illegible] with Harlan & Hollingsworth for the completion of the [illegible] with [illegible] for the completion of the [illegible] $141 [illegible] also the contracts with the South Boston Iron Company dated respectively March 7th and 14th 18[illegible] for the construction of boilers together [illegible]

This report is signed by Representatives Willis Whitthorne, Carlisle and Pridemore

The minority report of the committee signed by Representatives Page Hubbell and Williams of Oregon says the report of the majority committee has the great defect of ignoring testimony taken by the committee and the plain conclusions to be drawn from it to create an occasion for undeserved censure They believe the truth is desired by congress rather than fault finding and that it is not well to substitute unsupported assertions and assumptions for sworn evidence They have therefore not been able to agree with the majority in their present action of the results of this investigation and the sweeping censure of all concerned and then give their own conclusion derived from the testimony The principal part of the indebtedness of the navy department is for rebuilding five double turreted ironclads It is difficult to see where any reason is found either in law or testimony to criticise any contracts for re building of these great war vessels on the ground that such contracts were not in pursuance of advertisements and cannot practicably be made so, and nothing in the provisions of the law governing purchases for supplies and services in the navy department has any application to such contracts The practice has been to secure competition among bidders by advertisement or by personal notice and the testimony taken shows this was done before contracts for building the ironclads were given out and low rates were secured from competent parties but from the foundation of the government it has not been held that the law requires such works to be advertised and let out to the lowest bidder secured by such advertisement With regard to the open purchases of supplies and services the testimony is uniform that the government gets better articles at cheaper rates than when it is done by advertising

Russia's Naval Policy.

Russians Not Withdrawn

St Petersburg, May 11—The Agence Russe formally denies that the Russian troops have begun to withdraw from the positions about Constantinople It says however much the government may desire to recall the troops they will only retire after the Turks have surrendered the fortresses and the English fleet has left its present anchorage

London May 11—All the British regiments in the Mediterranean will be made up to 1 000 men Reinforcements are ready to leave England for this purpose

Schouvaloff's Mission.

St Petersburg, May 11—Count Schouvaloff will remain here only long enough to obtain the emperor's decision The time has been appointed when he should be in London again and it is desired that he spend the time in Berlin on his return journey After submitting his views and receiving the emperor's reply further negotiations conducted by him will assume an extremely important character

Aden May 12—Altogether sixteen transports have passed here conveying Indian troops to Malta

Servian Recruits

Washington May 11

Wigginton from the committee on public lands reported back senate bill for the sale of timber lands in California Oregon and Washington Territory It provides that such lands may be sold to citizens of the United States in quantities not exceeding 160 acres to any one person, at the minimum price of $2 50 per acre and makes it unlawful after the passage of this act to cut any timber on public lands After being so amended as to include in its provisions the states of Nevada and Colorado the bill was passed

Wright of Pennsylvania from the same committee reported the bill providing for a loan of $500 to every person who shall settle on public lands under the homestead law the act to be in operation until $10 000 000 has been expended in such loans The bill was reported without recommendation and referred to committee of the whole

Cause, from the same committee reported a bill to restore to market certain lands in Utah passed

Patterson from the same committee reported a bill placing California Nevada and Colorado on an equality with other states in the matter of public lands referred to committee of the whole

Reagan called up the bill to regulate inter state transportation by railroads and to prohibit unjust discrimination by common carriers

Bragg made a speech against the bill as not being what it purports to be The bill was an absolute prohibition against competition It protected one great trunk line from another—Scott from Garrett and both from Vanderbilt—and not being obliged to fight each other they would join in consuming all that the grasshoppers had left to the farmers of the west

Phillips opposed the bill on the ground that its [illegible] to make it impossible for railroads to ship freight over great continuous lines and that it would thus cripple the industries of the country

[illegible] opposed the bill and it was then read by sections

A long debate followed in which the principal objection expressed against the bill was that its meaning was buried away in such a mass of verbiage as to make it almost unintelligible

The house proceeded to vote on the amendments Cannon offered an amendment prohibiting pooling arrangements of railroad companies agreed to

Without disposing of the bill on which however the previous question was seconded so as to keep it before the house, adjournment took place

Kearney and Anti-Kearney

San Francisco May 10 In conformity with [illegible] Kearney the presidents or representatives of 16 ward clubs out of about twenty eight organized in the city met at Charter Oak hall to night to consider what steps to pursue in view of the recent schism in the party It was decided to organize themselves into an acting county committee to carry on the campaign with change of officers each week The new committee claim they can carry through the campaign at an expenditure of $675 as against $7 000 expended by the county committee proper It was also decided to allow San Mateo county to elect a joint delegate [illegible]

The regular county committee will pay no attention to this move but carry out their plans for the campaign claiming to be the only proper representatives of the party They have called a county convention to meet Monday next for selecting delegates to the state convention They will also take a second step in making nominations to the constitutional convention in accordance with the system adopted by the party by canvassing those names selected by clubs and choosing ninety of the number, which will then be sent back to the clubs for ratification and again returned to the convention for final choice of thirty of the number to serve as delegates

Mexican Politics

City of Mexico May 3—A feeling of anxiety exists in political circles Valarte, minister of foreign relations, Tagle, minister of justice and Garcia Cadena, minister of the interior were elected judges of the national supreme court Diaz appointed them as members of his cabinet License being granted them to abstain from court duties A question of jurisdiction resulting therefrom between the executive and the supreme court the court withdrawing the license requested the ministers to resign one position or the other Tagle and Cadena resigned the supreme court Valarte is embarrassed being reluctant to relinquish either the position of premier or the chief justiceship He is besides, the most prominent candidate for the next presidency His enemies are exulting over his trying position It is probable the court will extend further license to Valarte it being considered impolitic that he should leave the state department before the settlement of the American question

On April 30th Minister Foster gave an official dinner to President Diaz

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY'S RED HAT

THIRD AND LAST HONOR CONFERRED—THE CEREMONY AT THE VATICAN—POPE LEO'S CONDESCENSION

[From the N. Y. Times.]

At the consistory held in the Vatican on Thursday March 28, Pope Leo XIII presented Cardinal McCloskey with his cardinal's hat The cardinal arrived in Rome wearing a short violet dress but for this occasion he had to put on a long dress and was conveyed to the Vatican in a close carriage known as the ceremonial coach At 10 o'clock, the hour of audience, Leo XIII entered the hall of the consistory in his red cope and wearing on his head the gold mitre Then all the cardinals made their entry advancing slowly in couples, kneeling in turn at the feet of the pope and kissing his hand Presently two Deacon Cardinals escorted Cardinal McCloskey who had remained until now praying in the chapel of Sixtus V into the hall Here he made three profound bows to the pope, in the following order The first on entering the hall, the second when in the middle of the room and the third at the foot of the throne He then ascended the steps, and kneeling kissed the toe of the pope who then condescended to receive the kiss of peace He was then escorted around the room giving to all the cardinals the kiss of peace as he passed This ceremony over they all proceeded two by two, while the Te Deum was singing to the papal chapel

Arrived in the chapel their Eminences surrounded the altar, Cardinal McCloskey taking his place at the right of Cardinal Di Pietro who yielded to him the place of honor He then knelt on the steps of the altar, when the master of ceremonies placed upon his head a hood, so made as to hang behind his cope, and while the Te Ergo of the Te Deum was singing he prostrated himself profoundly and remained in this position not only till the end of the canticle but also during the time the deacon cardinal—who was at that moment on the alter beside the epistle—uttered a few prayers out of the Roman Pontifical book When all the prayers were over Cardinal McCloskey stood up the other cardinals stepped forward and kissed his hood and the deacon cardinal in the presence of two ministers of the order the great chamberlain and the chancellor presented to him the bull of the oath he was to take After reading it Cardinal McCloskey swore to be ready to shed his blood for the holy Roman church and for the privileges of the apostolic college to which he was now aggregated All the cardinals then returned to the hall of the consistory in the same order observed when leaving it Cardinal McCloskey also went there, still walking with those who escorted him to the chapel In the hall of the consistory he again knelt before the pope and one of the masters of ceremony drew the hood over his head The pope then put on him the red velvet hat the meanwhile reciting an orison and then retired from the room Immediately after the pope's departure the cardinals adjourned into another hall forming in a circle around Cardinal McCloskey who bowed and thanked them

The hat thus conferred on the American cardinal is generally known under the name of pontifical cap It is of red cloth with a broad brim but narrow crown two bands each ending in five rows of red silk tassels are attached to the crown and fall down on both sides so that they can be joined under the chin and fasten the hat or cap to his head These bands had formerly one single tassel because they were really attached under the chin when the cardinals wore the hat in some solemn ceremonies and in the cavalcades Now a days the hat being no more intended to cover the head these bands are only ornamental The hat reappears at the cardinal's death It is attached to the pall of the deceased and is generally suspended under the vault of the church just above the prelate's tomb The red hat which the cardinals wear each time they put on their red or violet capes is of felt and has the same form as that of the subordinate ecclesiastics The cardinals, however commonly wear in Rome the black hat adorned with red ribbon embroidered in gold and so will probably Cardinal McCloskey on his return to this city

SHOEMAKING

THE ENORMOUS BUSINESS CARRIED ON IN THE NEW ENGLAND FACTORIES

[From the Charleston News and Courier]

Twenty five years ago in New England, all shoes were made by hand and a man seldom sat at the bench all day, but usually plied some other trade till nightfall then went to his lasts To day thousands of men and women are employed daily in perfecting a piece of the shoe by machinery, whilst they are unable to do anything on the shoe by hand

Forty five millions of pairs of sewed shoes and 55 000 000 of pairs of pegged shoes were made and sold by manufacturers of the United States in 1877 and eighty five per cent of the work done on these shoes was done by machinery The uppers are cut out by hand simply because of the variableness of the quality of the leather in the same skin The soles are cut out by machinery and the binding, pasting, closing, crimping, stitching, heeling and polishing are all done by machinery without the aid of human hand

The strongest sewed shoes are stitched with a wire screw thread, each stitch being actually screwed in and the screw cut off by an automatic machine the exact thickness of the sole whether it be thin as in the shank or thick as under the ball of the foot or still thicker as through the heel

Nine hundred pegs are driven in a shoe in a minute Four hundred and fifty thousand bushels of pegs were used last year, and all made by machinery The pegs in four pairs of men's shoes cost one cent

The cost of shoes is no less now than when made by hand, because leather is dearer In 1855 it cost $2 25 to make a pair of ladies' gaiters of the finest quality Now the same shoe can be made for $1 50 Then females did most of the binding and stitching at 50 cents, now they get $1 30 per day for attending machinery Then men who lasted and did the sewing got $1 per day, now they get $2 50 The stock in such shoes is now worth 50 per cent more than it was in 1855 Then a man by hand made six pairs of woman's shoes in a day; now one man and a boy or woman will, by machinery make twenty times as much

So perfectly is everything made for this kind of manufacture that neither time nor a scrap of material is lost Last fall a shoe manufacturer was burned out in Lynn on Wednesday. Thursday he received his insurance and rented another house. Friday, ordered his new machinery from Boston, only nine miles off received it on Saturday, put it up on Monday, and on Tuesday had all his force at work turning out as many pairs of shoes as he had done before the fire—24,000 pairs every day There is a royalty of two cents on every pair of pegged, and of three and a quarter cents on every pair of sewed shoes made by machinery

There were over $8,000 000 worth of leather exported in 1877, and yet heavy duty is levied upon leather

There were 2 000 000 lasts made in the United States in 1877, all turned by machinery

In the manufacture of cotton and woolen goods ninety hands now in sixty hours do the work that 256 hands did in seventy-six and a half hours fifteen years ago and though their wages have increased forty per cent the cost of manufactured articles has been greatly reduced It costs three and a half cents per yard to make calico and Wamsutta goods are now sold in the London market, but yet the policy of our government thinks it proper to impose a duty of from thirty to fifty per cent upon all classes of cotton and woolen goods

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 13, 1878.

SATURDAY'S CONVENTION.

In printing the proceedings of the county convention, held on Saturday, we are not giving any news. Readers of THE OREGONIAN were not obliged to wait for the convention in order to obtain the ticket, but were favored with it in advance. Error was made but in a single name. The ticket is, in part, a better one than could have been expected a week ago; but much of it is sufficiently weak, perhaps too weak for success. The senatorial question was kept constantly in view by the managers; and yet the pressure of circumstances, including fear of defeat, forced the nomination of a few whose standing and character place them beyond the imputation of being a mere property of the Mitchell politicians. But this is by no means the case with all. Had a whole ticket for the legislature composed of men recognized for independence and fairness been nominated, there need not have been any question as to the election of every man. But there is a large class of voters who cannot be prevented from using their own discrimination. With them there is nothing sacred in the "straight ticket." The Republican party ought to have been spared the effort, so offensive to many of its members, to push matters so far in the interest of one man and his corps of personal adherents. To the managers themselves the mistake is likely to be apparent when the vote is counted. In local affairs there has not been for several years any great Republican majority in Multnomah to be discounted or trifled with. It is useless for those who have been setting up the game as far as they have been able, or as far as they dared, to appeal to all Republicans to vote for every candidate for the legislature without inquiry, and settle the senatorial question afterwards; because they know that sinister purposes and underhand methods have in many cases produced the nominations, and feel in consequence that they are called to participate in a game in which, by prior manipulation, every chance is held against them. Of some of the candidates nominated on Saturday it is due to truth to say that no person has a right to charge that they can be controlled by anybody. They are themselves accustomed to bear no small part in controlling events with which they are connected. But if it be urged that all the candidates are men of like independent character, the answer that must in candor be made is that the public have no reason to be convinced of it, but will naturally judge the contrary from the well known influences which put them in nomination. There was a strong chance that if the Republicans could elect all the members to be chosen for this county, the legislature might be theirs; and it was totally unnecessary to jeopard this by a course which forbids that complete harmony of action which might easily have been had on the entire legislative ticket. Citizens do not look always so much at the candidates themselves, all of whom they may not know thoroughly, as they consider what influences nominated them and what purposes must have been in view in their selection. These last considerations, which are present always more or less with a great class of voters, have more weight than political managers usually allow themselves to suppose. The Democrats will now come into the field with better chance for at least partial success than it was at all necessary to give them.

GERRYMANDER.

And so to make sure as possible of a Democratic majority in the house of representatives of the next congress they have resolved to gerrymander Ohio. The congressional divisions are to be arranged so as to give the Democrats fourteen out of twenty districts, though there has been a Republican majority in the state at every important election for twenty years. The Democratic party can claim gerrymander as its own invention. The term came into use in the year 1811 in Massachusetts, where for several years previous, the Federal and Democratic parties stood nearly equal. In that year the Democratic party, having a majority in the legislature, determined so to district the state anew that those sections which gave a large Federal vote might be brought into one district. The result was that the Democratic party carried everything before it in the following election and filled every office in the state, although it appeared by the votes returned that a large majority of the voters were Federalists. Elbridge Gerry, a distinguished politician of the time, was instigator of the plan. A map being made of the district into which the Federal majorities were brought some one exclaimed on looking at the remarkable outline, "That's a salamander!" "Salamander," said another; "I call it gerrymander!"

It appears that this effort to gain an unfair political advantage in Ohio was inspired at Washington. It was suggested several weeks ago by Sam Randall and other politicians. How naturally that party catches at everything of this kind is shown strikingly by the eagerness with which the suggestion from Washington is obeyed. Whether suppressing opposition majorities in Mississippi or Ohio, that party is alike true to its character. And all the time it claims to be the pink of political fairness and morality, and is still distressed that it lost the presidency a couple of years ago through a "fraudulent" tribunal of its own creating. This Ohio business will arrest general attention as fresh and further proof that the Democratic party will scruple and stick at nothing to lay hold of power. It may be that the Republican party has not always been entirely above all thought of doing a thing of this kind; but we now recall no effort it has ever made to district a state in such manner as to make it possible for a majority of the people thereof to elect less than one-third of the members of congress.

STATE ADMINISTRATION.

THE OREGONIAN has frequently urged the importance of a change in the management of the state government. So unsatisfactory was Gov. Grover's administration by the end of its first term that nothing but division among its opponents prevented its defeat. The bare plurality that renewed its lease of office was only about two-fifths of the vote of the state. Never since Grover's first year in the executive office has the administration which still goes under his name been backed by a majority of the people of Oregon. Its methods have not been approved, and its results have been very objectionable. A majority of the people of the state feel that a complete change of administration is now desirable. Only by election of the Republican state ticket can such result be surely gained. We hope, therefore, to see it elected entire. No dissensions in regard to other matters will make any difference in the unanimity with which those who desire a change in the state administration [illegible] well to see. For a number of years the people have been wishing for an opportunity to correct certain gross abuses in the administration of state affairs, which individual interest and partisan discipline have protected; and now they have it. And we trust they will use it.

Certain wiseacres are taking to themselves great credit for having opposed the arguments of those who maintained while the silver bill was under discussion that no legislative enactment could give to ninety-two cents' worth of silver the value of a dollar. They profess to think the sequel has disproved this view completely, because silver is now lower in the markets of the world than when our silver bill was passed, yet the silver dollar, which only contains an amount of silver that may actually be bought for ninety-two cents, is worth one hundred cents by virtue of the government stamp upon it. If these wise people will just wait a little, they will see more clearly. After the mint has run long enough on silver dollars to produce such supply that no gold will be required to make up a balance for the special purpose for which coin is necessary, namely, the payment of duties, the silver dollar, deprived of the artificial support of gold, must rest on its own value solely, as the gold dollar does. Under these circumstances, it is impossible that the anomaly witnessed in the glaring difference between the actual value of silver and the accidental value of the silver dollar can be perpetual. Were duties made payable in greenbacks, the silver dollar would not be in demand at rates beyond the actual value of the metal in it, plus the slight charge for coinage.

Charles Francis Adams comes to the front once more with some remarks about the great "fraud." The New York Herald prints in italics in four or five places on its editorial page an extract from this last brochure. The drift of it all is that Adams is not in the least surprised at the Florida revelations, but he does not see how they can help to unseat the president. He thinks that Hayes has proved a great failure, but is convinced that matters should be allowed to remain as they are. The great thing to do now, he believes, is to provide a new method for holding presidential elections, since civil war will inevitably follow another election under the same conditions as the last one. He differs with the south on the question of Tilden's "nerve," and believes the country owes him a debt of gratitude for his patriotism and self denial.

The manner of making up the county central committee at the convention on Saturday was a very clever job, and showed a political sagacity on part of the chairman which is creditable to one so young in the business, even if some of the delegates from the east side did complain a little because none of their men were appointed. The chairman appointed a committee and the committee reported a resolution declaring the chairman of the convention chairman of the committee, and empowering him to appoint his co-committeemen, and he in turn appointed the gentlemen who reported the resolution, and so the thing was done as easy as falling off a log.

The Republicans of the east side of the river consider themselves pretty effectually ruled out of the party. In the first place, in some of the precincts they had no notice of the primaries. In the next place, none of them were bidden to the inner caucus on Thursday night last, where the nominations were really made. Again, no deference whatever was paid to their wishes in the convention, and finally they were denied a place on the county committee. We are told, however, that they will attend the election.

Since it is absolutely undeniable that the push which Mr. Mitchell is making for re-election is the thing and the only thing which makes the success of the Republican party doubtful, is it not altogether proper to take notice of the fact and remonstrate against it.

Mr. Dolan announces himself as an independent candidate for the office of county assessor. Great numbers will vote for him rather than for the candidate nominated by the Republican convention, and we trust he will be elected.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Letters detailing the miracles wrought by Pio Nono pour into the Vatican, and his beatification is strongly urged.

The king of Portugal is continuing his translations from Shakespeare, and is now engaged upon "Merchant of Venice."

Joaquin Miller has sailed for Europe in search of recreation and health. It is not likely that he will return to this country.

The son of the late President Felton, of Harvard, is a student in the university at Athens, the great work of which is the restoration of the classical Greek tongue.

Midhat Pasha has turned author. The Nineteenth Century will soon publish an article written by him—its subject, "The Present Situation of the Ottoman Empire."

"If the income-tax passes," says Mr. Jordan L. Mott, the great New York iron founder, "it will make a nation of sneaks and perjurers, and hell will have to be enlarged."

The young Prince Louis Napoleon, who lately drew a number subjecting him to service in the French army, has obtained exemption according to French law as the only son of a widow.

Dickens' earlier works are just now coming out of copyright. The protection on "Sketches by Boz" has expired, and "Oliver Twist" will soon become common property. Three cheap editions of the "Sketches" are already issued in England.

Here was a Bad Job.

[From the Coos Bay News.]

One of the boys at a saw mill not far away put up a job on a Chinaman who was in the habit of stealing his coffee at night. A pot full of melted tallow was put in place of the coffee, and the heathen innocently helped himself to a big swallow before he discovered his mistake. Then he began spitting and swearing and pumping out tallow and rice and broken China and things until you couldn't rest. The unfeeling cause of all this suffering watched the proceedings with much interest, and seeing John's manly form stretched on a pile of saw-dust, asked what was the matter. Said John sadly, "Me heap dam sick! 'Melican man me no likee!"

Misery Loves Company.

[From the Milwaukee Sentinel.]

Upon the principle that misery loves company, Messrs. Blaine and Howe are supremely happy over the predicament of Mr. Conkling. He digged a pit, and after Timothy fell therein inadvertently tumbled after. The Maine senator begins to feel uncomfortable, and is glad to have Roscoe attract attention for the time.

The famous estate of Ben Holladay, bought when he supposed he was a rich man, situated in Westchester county, N. Y., comprising 714 acres, and known as the Ophir farm, has been sold to August Belmont for $1,000 above incumbrances, amounting to $212,000, exclusive of any interest that may be due.

CITY.

INDIAN TROUBLE APPREHENDED.—A dispatch has been received by Gen. Howard from the commanding officer at Fort Colville, to the effect that Tonaskit, chief of the Okanagans, was there and reports a division in his tribe and asked for help to maintain his authority. Tonaskit stated to the officer that unless assistance was rendered him a portion of his tribe would join Chief Moses. Moses, it is stated, has a good many armed men around him at present. On receipt of this news General Howard replied "Do not send detachment. Must not begin a war." The last message from Moses was for peace. It is said that Moses' band numbers about 600 warriors. In consequence of this reported uneasy and restless state of the Indians, Gen. Howard ordered Capt. M. C. Wilkinson to proceed at once to the scene of difficulty and ascertain the nature and extent of the threatened trouble. Capt. Wilkinson started up the river Saturday morning bound for Colville. Further and more satisfactory advices may be anticipated in a few days.

NEW ENTERPRISE.—We understand that Mr. Edwin Shannon, of East Portland, has purchased the steam dryer located on the east bank of the river, and will remodel the same immediately into a fruit-canning establishment on quite a large scale. He has also bought the right of Mr. Plummer to erect in his new patent dryer, and will run the same in connection with the cannery. Mr. Shannon intends to go into the preserving of potatoes, by the Plummer process, quite extensively. He has had considerable experience in the canning business, and intends to can all kinds of fruits and vegetables, and also dry certain varieties. The need of such an establishment has long been felt by this community. The drying of potatoes is something that should be looked into by every farmer in Oregon, as these potatoes sell readily in Europe at very high prices. We wish him success in his new enterprise.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The last meeting of Multnomah Teachers' Institute was a decided success. The next meeting will be held at Central School building, East Portland, on Saturday, May 18th, beginning at 10 o'clock. There will be an address on elocution by J. P. Weger, an essay by Miss L. A. Bailey, and a discussion on the "metric system," subject to be introduced by T. R. Coon. Good music will also constitute a part of the exercises. All teachers and friends of education are invited to attend and participate in the discussions.

MONUMENTAL MINE.—With the progress of work night and day, the Monumental mine is fulfilling the expectations of its most sanguine friends, both in extent and richness of ore. A letter received at the office of the company from C. S. Miller, general manager, states: "Ledge No. 13 fully four feet wide, and most all rich specimen ore across the entire face." Under date of May 1st he states: "North drift on No. 13 is now being driven ahead, and we are now taking out very rich ore by the car load."

A BENEFIT.—Mr. Lou F. Howard, the favorite and popular comedian, will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit next Saturday evening at New Market Theatre. A very entertaining and attractive bill will be offered on that occasion. Miss Alice Gorman, a young actress recently from San Francisco, has kindly volunteered and will assume a prominent part. There will also be numerous other volunteers. Mr. Howard is a very clever and painstaking actor, and deserves a bumper.

INTERMENT.—The funeral of the late James Arthur Hope, of Canada, whose sudden death last Monday morning was mentioned in THE OREGONIAN, took place at 3 P. M. yesterday. The remains were buried in the plot of the Young Men's Christian Association in Lone Fir Cemetery. A number of friends accompanied the body to the grave, where a very interesting service was held by Rev. R. S. Stubbs, chaplain of the Seamen's Friend Society.

DECORATION DAY.—The most complete arrangements are being made for the observance of the beautiful custom of decorating the graves of soldiers, on the 30th of this month, and a full programme by the Grand Army of the Republic and the military companies of the city will soon be published. Enough is already done to insure an interesting occasion. In addition to the usual procession, oration, music, etc., there will be other exercises to entertain the public.

CAPTAIN LOVE'S BOAT.—Work on Captain Love's new steamer above Smith's saw mill is being crowded forward as rapidly as possible. This boat is 125 feet long; breadth of beam, 22 feet; hold, 4½ feet. Her engines will be of 12 inch bore and 4 feet stroke. This boat will take the place of the steamer Calliope and will run on the same route. Mr. Joseph Pacquet has the contract for building the new boat.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Houston vs. Natorp et al. will be decided this morning.

TARGET SHOOTING.

The target shooting which came off yesterday at the park by the German-American Rifle Club was largely attended, and passed off very pleasantly. The following is the score, and prizes awarded, 36 "points" being the highest for any one to possibly make:

Jos. Willms	35	Euberry	22

Indian Trouble Apprehended —A dispatch has been received by Gen Howard from the commanding officer at Fort Colville to the effect that Tonaskit, chief of the Okanagans [illegible] there and reports a division in his tribe and asked for help to maintain his authority. Tonaskit stated to the officer that unless assistance was rendered him a portion of his people would join Chief Moses. Moses it is stated, has a good many armed men around him at present. On receipt of this news General Howard replied "Do not send detachment. It would not begin a war." The last message from [illegible] was for peace." It is said that Moses has numbers about 600 warriors In consequence of this reported uneasy and restless state of the Indians, Gen Howard ordered Capt M. C. Wilkinson to proceed at once to the scene of difficulty and ascertain the nature and extent of the threatened trouble Capt. Wilkinson started up the river Saturday morning bound for Colville Further and more satisfactory advices may be anticipated in a few days.

New Enterprise.—We understand that Mr [illegible] Shannon, of East Portland has purchased the steam dryer located on the east side of the river, and will remodel the same immediately into a fruit-canning establishment on quite a large scale. He has also bought the right of Mr Plummer to erect his patent dryer, and will run the same in connection with the cannery. Mr Shannon intends to go into the preserving of potatoes by the Plummer process, quite extensively. He has had considerable experience in the canning business, and intends to can all kinds of fruits and vegetables, and also dry [illegible] varieties. The need of such an establishment has long been felt by this community. The drying of potatoes is something that should be looked into by every farmer in Oregon, as these potatoes sell readily in [illegible] at very high prices We wish him success in his new enterprise.

Teachers' Institute.—The last meeting of the [illegible] Teachers' Institute was a decided success. The next meeting will be held at the [illegible] School building, East Portland on Saturday, May 18th, beginning at 10 o clock. There will be an address on elocution by J [illegible], an essay by Miss L A Bailey, and a discussion on the "metric system" subject to be introduced by T. R. Coon. Good music will also constitute a part of the exercises. All teachers and friends of education are invited to attend and participate in the discussion.

Monumental Mine.—With the progress of work night and day, the Monumental mine is fulfilling the expectations of its most sanguine friends, both in extent and richness of ore. A letter received at the office of the company from C. S. Miller, general manager says: "Ledge No. 13 fully four feet wide and all rich specimen ore across the entire face." Under date of May 1st he states "the drift on No. 13 is now being driven ahead, and we are now taking out very rich ore by the car load."

Benefit.—Mr. Lou F. Howard, the favorite and popular comedian, will be the recipient of a complimentary benefit next Saturday evening at New Market Theatre. A very interesting and attractive bill will be offered on that occasion. Miss Alice Gorman, a [illegible] recently from San Francisco, has kindly volunteered and will assume a prominent part. There will also be numerous other volunteers. Mr. Howard is a very good and painstaking actor, and deserves a benefit.

Funeral.—The funeral of the late James [illegible] Hope, of Canada, whose sudden death last Friday morning was mentioned in The Oregonian, took place at 3 P. M. yesterday. The remains were buried in the plot of the Young Men's Christian Association in Lone Fir Cemetery. A number of friends accompanied the body to the grave, where a very touching service was held by Rev R. S. [illegible], chaplain of the Seamen's Friend Society.

Decoration Day.—The most complete arrangements are being made for the observance of the beautiful custom of decorating the graves of soldiers, on the 30th of this month, and a full programme by the Grand Army of the Republic and the military companies of the city will soon be published [illegible] already done to insure an interest [illegible]. In addition to the usual procession, oration, music, etc., there will be [illegible] to entertain the public

Captain Levy's Boat.—Work on Captain [illegible] steamer above Smith's saw mill is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible [illegible] 125 feet long; breadth of beam, [illegible]; hold, 4½ feet. Her engines will be of [illegible] bore and 4 feet stroke This boat will take the place of the steamer Calliope and will run on the same route. Mr. Joseph Pacquet has the contract for building the new boat.

U. S. Circuit Court.—The case of Houston [illegible] et al. will be decided this morning.

THE SEQUEL.

THE REMAINS OF J A HOPE FOUND BURIED IN THE THE CEMETERY AT SALEM—THEY ARE BROUGHT HERE AND INTERRED—THE MATTER SATISFACTORILY EXPLAINED

After all the excitement and disparaging comment made in regard to the exhumation of the body of the late James A Hope and the circumstances connected with its removal to Salem the whole matter has to a great extent been satisfactorily explained and that too in a manner tending to show that there was nothing criminal intended

On being notified that the body of deceased must be produced in this city Saturday forenoon or legal proceedings would be instituted Mr Andrew Delin the young man who assisted Mr George Tuttle in disinterring the remains took the express train Friday afternoon and proceeded to Salem He arrived there about seven o clock and repaired without delay to the residence of Dr McAfee To his disappointment Mr Delin ascertained that the doctor had been called to see a patient residing about five miles east of Salem and that he would probably remain away all night As no time was to be lost Mr Delin procured a buggy and taking with him a young Salem man who knew where the patient lived he proceeded to the place He found Dr McAfee to whom he related the whole circumstance stating that there were suspicions the body had been exhumed and taken to Salem for purposes of dissection that unless the remains were produced in good condition at Portland Saturday forenoon the authorities would commence an investigation, etc When Dr McAfee heard this he was quite indignant He told Delin and the gentleman with him where the body had been buried giving very explicit directions so that they could make no mistake He also told Delin to have all the necessary expenses charged to him Returning to Salem Delin procured an express wagon and taking along a man to assist started for the cemetery situated about two miles south of the city They arrived there about 1 o clock A M and after finding the grave commenced to dig up the body After no small labor they reached the rude pine box containing the remains and after placing it in the wagon conveyed the coffin and what it contained to the depot The remains were placed on the express train Saturday morning and brought to this city The body was found buried in the same lot in which the remains of Dr McAfee s former wife rest While the body was on the way to this city Chief Besser received a dispatch from the city marshal of Salem telling him to examine the remains when they arrived here as it was thought there that those of another had been substituted When the body reached the undertaker shop of Messrs. Ewery & Garnold Chief Besser, Capt Allen Officer Hudson District Attorney R Stott and Mr Bonney were present and witnessed the opening of the coffin The remains were examined and fully identified as those of the late J A Hope Notwithstanding nearly a week had elapsed since the death of Mr Hope the body was in a good state of preservation and did not emit any unpleasant odor

A sufficient sum of money having been collected to give the deceased a decent burial in consecrated ground the funeral took place Saturday afternoon and was quite respectably attended principally by the countrymen of the deceased

We understand that District Attorney Stott proposes to thoroughly investigate the whole matter From all the circumstances it would appear that there was no criminal intent on the part of Dr McAfee or any one else connected with the affair The body was found buried along side the remains of his (McAfee s) wife and had not been disturbed in any way all of which indicate that it was not for the purpose of dissection that the remains had been removed from the Potter s field

The following is the statutory provision against burking which may be found in the general laws of Oregon section 606 page 4.

If any person shall willfully and wrongfully dig up disinter remove or convey away any human body or the remains thereof such person, upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months nor more than one year

UNDER ARREST

Since the above was written Dr McAfee was arrested at Salem by officer Hudson on complaint of James Laidlaw British vice consul and brought down to this city Yesterday he was admitted to bail in the sum of $500 He furnished the bonds required and was released from custody The other parties concerned in the affair have also been arrested and admitted to bail each in the sum of $500 which was given To day the defendants will have an examination

THE CLARKE VS. CRUZAN DISCUSSION.

We are authorized to state that Dr Clarke declined to debate with the person presented through Rev Cruzan as "medium" for the reason that he is not a fair representative of the Christian faith, nor of the Christian opponents of Spiritualism In lieu of the proposed discussion it has been mutually agreed between Messrs Clarke and Cruzan that Dr Clarke shall deliver in due time a course of lectures reviewing the sermons of Rev Cruzan so that all fair-minded people may hear both sides

An Astonishing Fact

A large proportion of the American people are to day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered Liver The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism take the advice of druggists and your friends and try one bottle of Green s August Flower Your speedy relief is certain Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues with satisfactory results in every case You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try Three doses will relieve the worst case Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent

Eastern Freights and Markets

NEW YORK, May 11.—There is [illegible] to note in the freight market. The ships are doing a fair business and meeting with as good dispatch as could be expected. The movement of freights is still of a heavy and coarse class although there is a fair amount of dry goods going forward. Rates remain steady but [illegible] which is the only [illegible] shippers have, as their advices from San Francisco are not over encouraging. The [illegible] on the 9th had for the California market 11 barrels oil, 10 barrels whisky, 1[illegible] cases yeast powder, [illegible] packages dry goods, 1[illegible] cases chairs, [illegible] cases canned goods, 1[illegible]0 boxes polishing powder, 10 cases sauce, 100 boxes lye, 100 kegs syrup, 150 kegs spikes, 758 bars rails, 263 kegs rivets, [illegible] packages pipe.

Railroad freights at Boston have been very active the past week, shipments footing up [illegible] packages of general merchandise, including a lot of printing paper, wire, etc., also 3 1[illegible]6 packages fish, [illegible] cases wine, 916 kegs horse shoes. On the other hand clipper freights have been very quiet, and the Brown Brothers, which sailed to day, was obliged to finish with a lot of pig iron sent from this port.

The Philadelphia freight market is moderately active, and the Jas Nesmith is doing a fair business. The Pactolus is about three quarters loaded and will probably get off next week. The ship Astoria, with a cargo of soft coal, went to sea on the 9th instant, and the [illegible] with a similar cargo cleared to day.

New York markets moderately active. Flour quiet, firmer; wheat, better demand, 1@2c higher; pork steady, quiet; Rio coffee, moderate demand, firm; refined sugars brisk and demand firmer; teas dull; hides in fair demand and firm, with sales of 1 701 California, gold, at four months, [illegible] do private; petroleum dull; spirits turpentine firm at 31; wool dull; California spring continues in request, but at prices that barely cover cost; sales of 98 bales fall and 12 000 pounds spring, private.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, May 11.—Wool—Fair business done the past week in domestic, but at low and unsatisfactory prices. The recent large movement in fine fleeces has failed to impart a firmer tone to the market. Ohio and Pennsylvania wools are a shade lower than last week, and sales of X and XX could not be forced at over 36¼@38. Some very choice wools have in fact, been recently sold at 38, indicating a shrinkage of 13@14 cents per pound from prices paid for them in the interior last July and cost of carrying them since that time. Combing and delaine fleeces are unsettled, and it is difficult to give reliable quotations. Sales of washed 32@45 for coarse and choice unwashed 30; pulled wool in fair demand, sales comprising 203 000 pounds at 20@45 for super and X. In California sales were made of 428,000 pounds at 18@30 for spring, and 15@20 for fall. Other transactions embrace Michigan at 35@37½, coarse fleece 30, Texas 20@26, Eastern and valley Oregon 22@31, Colorado 19@26, scoured, 37½@37¾. Total sales of domestic for the week were 1,079 700 pounds.

Shipping Intelligence.

The steamship George W Elder hence for San Francisco, will sail at 3 o clock Monday morning.

The steamship Oregon will be due here from San Francisco on Monday evening.

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The market continues in the same quiet condition noticed last week, with no improvement in the demand for shipments, the few lots arriving being generally taken by millers at $1 85@1 95. Contracts for the new crop are reported at $1 60@1 65.

OATS—There is but little animation in the trade and shipments are light. Prices vary with the wants of buyers, and range from 40 to 45 cents per bushel.

FLOUR—Supplies are light and prices steady at $5 50@5 75 in jobbing lots, while small lots are held at $6 for standard extras. Good country brands are quotable at $5@5 25, superfine $4 50 per barrel.

BARLEY—The receipts, which are quite light, are all taken for local consumption at $1 40@1 50 per cwt. No shipments are being made.

MILL FEED—Supply fair, bran quotable at $20 per ton, shorts $27 50, middlings $32 50@35.

POTATOES—The receipts have materially declined and prices are lower, shippers now offering about $1@1 10 per bushel, but commission houses often have opportunities to sell to the local trade at $1 20@1 25.

HAY—Receipts continue quite adequate to the demand; prices range from $10@11 per ton for baled timothy and $8 50@9 for loose do.

ONIONS—In fair demand for the local trade and for shipment, quotable at $2 per ℔ for best varieties.

BACON—The demand for good new is quite brisk and prospects for the trade improved. Sides are quoted at 10@10½c per ℔; shoulders 7@7½c, hams, 11@12½c for fair to good, sugar cured 15c.

LARD—The supply is ample and the market quiet at 10@12½ cents ⅌ ℔.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Butter solid 15@16c ⅌ ℔, brine 16@18c, choice dairy 30@35c; cheese, quotable at 15@16c ⅌ ℔. Market quiet, dull.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS

public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them, without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions, and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country, with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
